

One person in your family can still name
everyone in that box.

“Who is this?”

Full name, and what you called them.

“Where was this taken?”

Whose house, whose garden?

“What happened right after this was taken?”

“Who took it?”

Why that day?

Tip the box out on the table.
Phone on record. One at a time.

Do the box before it's just faces.
